

THE INTERNSHIP CAMP®

COMMUNICATION STRATEGIST INTERN:

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Determining the most effective means of communicating our technology narrative to specialized tech media, existing, and new employees
- Creating and updating a content calendar for technology-related communications
- Assisting our technical recruiting team in developing appropriate material for Deliveroo's owned social networks, such as LinkedIn, in order to help us meet our recruitment objectives.
- Locating, researching, and planning speaking engagements and events for our leaders (internally and externally)
- To support suggested communications, prepare speaking notes, draft articles, and brief digital material.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience working in a firm in a communications function (internal or external) or as a communications adviser/consultant to companies
- Working on internal and external communications, especially media relations, is a plus.
- Excellent written and oral communication abilities
- Resourceful, action-oriented, and detail-oriented.
- Confident dealing with a wide range of stakeholders and thrives in a fast-paced atmosphere.
- Ability to generate demonstrable effect by combining creativity and analytical thinking.
- Proficient in English (any other foreign language is an asset)

This Internship is Unpaid.

Benefits: No

Duration of internship: 2months to 6 months

Start Date: 01 January 2022

Application Deadline: 15 December 2021

Location: Munich, Germany

If you are interested in this position, please send us your CV at piero.tuzzo@stsicily.it

Please do share with your contacts**